2008 Masters Series Challengers

Masters Series Debuts in 2008

Last year Glendale attracted close to 200 participants to their Rookie Tour tournaments, with most events geared towards entry level players. In 2008 Glendale plans to evolve its Rookie events and expand towards higher levels of competition by introducing four Master Series Challengers. The unique format of the Master Series Challenger tournaments will encourage players of all levels to compete during the same competition, yet within their own skill level groupings.
